

eligibility

REV will offer scholarships to selected applicants who meet the following criteria.

- Applicant (or parent/guardian of applicant) must reside in a REV service area (REV residential service area info: letsrev.com/service-areas) and be a REV residential customer in good standing.
- Applicants may be graduates of home schooling, private or public high schools.
- Student must graduate with a minimum of 3.0 GPA out of a possible 4.0 on all high school subjects and a minimum of 21 ACT is required.
- Applicants should show evidence of leadership, character and service in both school and community.
- Pursuing a degree in telecommunications is preferred.
- There are no restrictions on the university that recipients attend.
- Financial need will be considered.

selection

From those applicants who meet the criteria, an unspecified number of candidates will be selected for interview by the REV Scholarship Committee.

scholarship guidelines

- Scholarship Guidelines require that the recipient maintain at least a 3.0 Overall/Cumulative grade point average. At the end of each semester, grades and evidence of customer status, if applicable, should be sent to the REV Human Resources Department for review. Should a recipient be placed on Scholarship probation, only two probationary semesters, not consecutive, will be allowed.
- To remain on scholarship, recipients must maintain full-time student status.
- Scholarship funds expire if not collected within 8 years of high school graduation.
- If the scholarship recipient is the child of an employee of REV, the parent of the scholarship recipient must be an active employee during the scholarship period for the scholarship to continue.
- If the scholarship recipient is a customer (or the child of a customer) of REV, the recipient or his/her parents must remain in good standing during the scholarship period for the scholarship to continue.

funds

REV will maintain the scholarship fund, issue checks to students and retain full decision-making authority as needed in special scholarship situations.

Scholarship recipients must contact the REV Scholarship Committee (scholarships@letsrev.com) with proof of college enrollment and evidence of customer status, if applicable, to receive the first payment.
